

Introduction to Computers

World Wide Web for Beginners WWW Terminology Worksheet

■ Completion and Short Answers

1. What do the initials WWW represent?
2. What is the Internet or "Net"?
3. A minimum of ____MG of RAM is necessary to use the Internet.
4. When purchasing a modem, ____ should be the minimum speed of a modem.
5. In order to use the Internet, software called a browser must be installed on your computer. Two of the most popular browsers are ____ and ____.
- 6.
7. Software needs to use the Net and provide "dial up" access. This service is provided by ____for a fee.
8. ____ make it easy to move from page to page on the Internet. When you use this feature, information downloads onto your computer.
9. The place on the search engine's home page where you type in your key words to be searched is called the ____ box.
10. Some search engines use ____ menus from which you select operators. While in others, you must type the operator in the ____ box.
- 11.

■ Define the following:

Freeware-

Shareware-

Trialware-

■ True or False .

- T F 1. Modems are always an external component.
- T F 2. When your browser downloads, pictures appear before text.
- T F 3. One can save time when downloading by turning off the "automatic load image" feature. This allows you to download text only.
- T F 4. Information found on the web could be stored on your computer or a floppy disk.
- T F 5. The Web is highly organized.
- T F 6. Advertising is allowed on many web pages to help pay costs of maintaining these pages.

What is the difference between digital and analog signals? Which one does the computer use? What is the purpose of the modem in reference to analog and digital signals?

What is the purpose of a search engine?

How do you get an E-Mail address?

How does a browser use the Internet?

Matching

- | | |
|-----------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ____ FTP | 1. Securing your credit card number when paying for merchandise on the Internet |
| ____ On-line | 2. Hypertext transfer protocol |
| ____ E-Mail | 3. Text, picture, or graphic which link one web page to another |
| ____ URL | 4. People who use the Web |
| ____ Home Page | 5. A collection of favorite URL's |
| ____ Users | 6. Software which knows the difference between the capital letter "A" and the lower case of the letter "a" |
| ____ http | 7. Page address - Uniform Resource Locator |
| ____ hit | 8. Main page on the web site |
| ____ Bookmarks or Favorites | 9. Method used to download software |
| ____ Encrypted | 10. Web page, which contains 200 more methods of presentation, such as video, music, animation, or sound |
| ____ Virtual Reality | 11. The use of the computer to create objects and places which appear to be real |
| ____ Hyperlink | 12. Area where the URL's or address is displayed |
| ____ Location box | 13. Electronic mail-sending messages from one computer to another |
| ____ Case sensitive | 14. A page found by a search engine that contains a keyword from the query box |

____ Multimedia

15. Connecting to the Internet

 WWW Worksheet Answer Key